Summary

Im a dedicated software engineer with a strong interest in Web3 related development and UX design. With over a year of focused experience building tools and applications in the crypto space, I combine my enthusiasm for technology with an understanding of what drives engagement in Web3. As an active airdrop hunter and alpha seeker, I stay at the cutting edge of NFT and crypto news, bridging the gap between innovative blockchain technology and intuitive user experiences. I am also continuously expanding my skillset into AI and non-Web3 technologies.
